Land-North Carolina trast to his own, that won his heart; and sooth to sav. every man of discernment considers a fair skin, like a sweet voice, "an excellent thing in woman." Now this is a charm which can be acquired. There is a healthful and oriferous toilet article, known everywhere as lagan's Magnolia Balm, which literally transfigures a cloudy or sallow skin, suffusing the discolored face, neck, arms and bosom with a soft, pearly tinge, and imparting to the surface a smoothness and a gloss like that of polished marble. Instead of clogging the like the sticky enamels, or contracting them, and thus obstructing perspiration, like the astringent cosmetics, it cleanses the skin from all impurities and wonderfully improves its texture. This peculiarity is particularly appreciated by our tural belles, who find that the coarseness and roughness, which country air is apt to engender, are speedly removed from their faces, hands and arms, by this delightful
